HOST EDMUND STONE is a classically trained Shakespearean actor whose background includes a variety of stage and screen roles. With deep connections to Hollywood and the classical music community, Edmund is the ideal host for this weekly foray into the world of film and music.

THE SCORE is a weekly celebration and exploration of film music—from timeless favorites to newly released scores. The Score's carefully crafted programs are complimented by frequent interviews with composers such as Danny Elfman, Rachel Portman, Hans Zimmer, and more. Over ten million listeners tune in to this popular program, broadcasting on over 70 stations across the United States.

OREGON LOVES THE ARTS!

All Classical Portland is the premiere arts and classical music station in the Pacific Northwest, reaching over 250,000 regular local listeners, broadcasting from the Cascade Mountains to the Oregon Coast and streaming worldwide on the web.
