NOTEBOOK AIRS SUNDAYS,
12:00PM - 1:00PM

HOST LYNN S AY MAYNARD invites listeners to enjoy “a library card and a record player all in one” each week on Notebook. This special Sunday program explores the inspiring and exciting connections between music and literature, celebrating how composers and authors have influenced each other—and how we can be transported through the arts.

NOTEBOOK is designed for lovers of music, literature, history, culture, and creativity. This unique program airs at a time with one of the highest levels of listenership, and Portland—home to literary events and festivals and the world’s largest independent book store—is a city filled with literature enthusiasts, attracting readers, writers, and listeners alike.

OREGON LOVES THE ARTS!

All Classical Radio is the premiere arts and classical music station in the Pacific Northwest, reaching over 250,000 regular local listeners, broadcasting from the Cascade Mountains to the Oregon Coast and streaming worldwide on the web.
